MAROCCO - DALL'ATLAS ALLE DUNE TOUR IN MOTO

A fantastic 8-day tour that will take us to discover that part of Morocco often forgotten by classic tours, but so rich in culture, ancient flavors, and all those ingredients that make the difference between "traveling" and "being a tourist": high mountains, deep valleys, ancient Kasbahs and legendary Ksars, small villages with houses made of mud, endless palm groves, oases, and dunes.

PROGRAM

Day 1: Arrival in Marrakech

Arrival by plane in Marrakech. Each participant will be welcomed at the airport with a personalized sign. Transfer by minibus to the hotel where our bikes will be ready, and where our tour will begin. An introductory briefing will allow participants to get to know each other and review the travel itinerary.

Day 2: From Marrakech to Ait Ben Haddou - 180 km / 110 miles

Today we will tackle the road that climbs to Tizi n'Tichka, an incredible pass at 2260 meters, along one of the most beautiful roads in the world. We will then pass by the magnificent Kasbah of Telouet, where we will make a brief stop. We will continue along very scenic roads, climbing the Atlas Mountains, where caravans used to pass and trade goods. We will arrive at Ait Ben Haddou, where we will have dinner and overnight at a typical hotel/ kasbah.

Day 3: From Ait Ben Haddou to Tinghir – 270 km / 167 miles

After a hearty breakfast, we will visit the Ait Ben Haddou Kasbah (where many episodes of Game of Thrones were filmed), with a guide who will explain Berber architecture and how people lived in these small communities. We will then pass through Ouarzazate and immerse ourselves in ancient Morocco. We will continue through valleys and villages frozen in time, along the "Road of a Thousand Kasbahs", named for the numerous red earth castles that rise from the palms, leading us to the Dades Gorges, where the winding road, with its thousand hairpin turns, will leave us with unforgettable memories and photos that will make those at home envious! We will end the day in Tinghir, with dinner and overnight at a fantastic Riad, but not before tackling the Todra Gorges, rocky walls that create spectacular canyons, where a refreshing green tea will be our aperitif.

Day 5: From Erfoud to Merzouga – 140 km / 86 miles

Today we will discover the wonder of Erg Chebbi and the oasis of Merzouga. The dunes can reach heights of 150 meters and change colors throughout the day from pink, to gold, to red. Here, you will experience all the sensations and emotions that the desert has to offer: silence, infinity, and at night, a sky full of stars. There will be an opportunity, for those who wish, to go on camel treks, quad rides, or buggy excursions. Dinner and overnight in a desert camp.

Day 4: From Tinghir to Erfoud – 150 km / 93 miles

Today we will head southeast along roads and trails to reach Erfoud, an intense city on the edge of the desert. We will feel like the stars of Marrakech Express! Along the way, we will stop to visit the fantastic Star sculptures and a Berber aqueduct. Dinner and overnight at the Hotel in Erfoud, which features two swimming pools and a wellness center with a hammam and massage rooms.

Day 6: From Merzouga to Boulmane Dades - 310 km / 192 miles

After enjoying the colors of the sunrise over the dunes and having a Berber breakfast, we will depart for Rissani, once the last outpost before the desert and the border with Algeria. A brief off-road excursion will take us to the ancient slave prison, a location featured in the movie The Mummy. The paved road will slowly leave the desert, keeping it in our hearts. The Jebel Saghro mountain and its road with fantastic panoramas will lead us to Boulmane Dades, where we will overnight at a great hotel with a pool and spa.

Day 7: From Boulmane Dades to Marrakech - 320 km / 198 miles

Today, we will take the road that climbs to Tizi n'Tchika, an incredible pass at 2260 meters, along one of the most beautiful roads in the world, before heading back to Marrakech. The city is the second-largest in Morocco and is also known as the "Red City" due to the color of its walls and buildings. Its location at the foot of the Atlas Mountains gives it a wonderful climate. We will explore the maze of souks with their characteristic shops where you can shop for souvenirs. At sunset, don't miss a cup of tea on one of the terraces of the cafés in Jemaa El Fna Square, where you can watch the food stalls. Return of the bikes. Overnight at the hotel, and in the evening, we will gather to celebrate the final dinner and reminisce about the best moments of this spectacular journey.
