We can't wait to share this exciting trip with you, where every curve, every dish, and every sip of wine will make you fall even more in love with Italy!

PROGRAM

Day 1: Arrival in Milan (Hotel included)

The journey begins in the vibrant city of Milan, an ideal starting point for a memorable adventure. Before heading towards the Alpine roads, take some time to enjoy the beauty of the fashion and design capital, with its iconic landmarks such as the Duomo and the Sforza Castle.

Day 2: From Milan to Bologna, 255 km – 160 miles (Hotel included, morning motorcycle pickup)

Today we head towards Bologna, one of the most fascinating and historically rich cities in Italy. Known as "The Learned" for its ancient university, dating back to 1088, Bologna is a true treasure trove of culture, art, and gastronomic traditions. Strolling through its centuries-old porticos, which are a UNESCO World Heritage site, you'll find yourself immersed in a lively atmosphere that blends modernity and tradition in a perfect harmony.

Bologna's historic center, with its picturesque squares and medieval towers, invites you to stop and explore. The city is also the capital of Italian gastronomy, famous worldwide for its specialties such as mortadella, tortellini, and ragù alla bolognese. Every corner of the city tells the story of unique flavors, but also of extraordinary architecture, like its ancient towers and historic squares.

Though not part of today's experience, Bologna offers plenty of opportunities to visit museums, galleries, and historic cafés, providing a perfect break before continuing our journey.

Day 3: From Bologna to Chianti, 175 km – 110 miles (Hotel included)

Today we head towards the beautiful Chianti region, world-famous for its breathtaking landscapes, rolling hills covered with vineyards and olive groves, and its picturesque medieval villages. Chianti is a land where nature and tradition blend perfectly, creating a unique atmosphere that invites you to pause and savor every moment.

This area, the heart of Tuscan winemaking, is famous for its Chianti Classico wine, which captures the essence of the land and the passion of its producers in every bottle. But Chianti is not just about wine: it also offers a rich history, told through ancient churches, medieval castles, and charming villages.

Among the rolling hills and small towns that characterize this area, you'll have the opportunity to immerse yourself in an enchanting landscape, perfect for a leisurely walk or simply to enjoy a panoramic view that will stay with you forever.

Day 4: From Chianti to Montepulciano, 130 km - 80 miles (Hotel included)

Today we continue our journey towards Montepulciano, one of the most charming gems of Tuscany. Located on a hill overlooking the Val d'Orcia, Montepulciano is a medieval town that enchants with its cobblestone streets, elegant squares, and Renaissance buildings. Every corner of the town tells the story of art, culture, and centuries-old traditions.

Walking through Montepulciano, you'll be immersed in a timeless atmosphere, where the beauty of the surrounding landscapes blends with the grandeur of its historic buildings. Known for its famous Nobile di Montepulciano wine, the town is the heart of one of Tuscany's most renowned wine regions, an area that has been producing some of the best wines in the world for centuries.

Montepulciano is a place where history and nature come together, offering an authentic and unforgettable experience.

Day 5: From Montepulciano to Scansano, 100 km - 62 miles (Hotel included)

Today we head towards Scansano, a charming village nestled in the heart of Tuscany's Maremma region. Surrounded by rolling hills, vineyards, and olive groves, Scansano is the perfect destination for those seeking the authenticity of the Tuscan countryside. The landscape welcomes us with its peaceful beauty, offering a serene and tranquil atmosphere.

Scansano is famous for its Morellino wine, a robust red wine that represents the winemaking tradition of this area. But the town is not just about wine; its historic center, with its cobbled streets and panoramic views, takes visitors on a journey through the past. The town, which retains its medieval charm, invites you to explore every corner, discovering the local history and traditions.

In this corner of Tuscany, you'll experience a unique atmosphere, immersed in the beauty of nature and the peacefulness of a place that has preserved its authentic identity.

Day 6: From Montefiascone to Ascoli Piceno, 200 km - 125 miles (Hotel included)

Today we head towards Ascoli Piceno, a fascinating city in the heart of the Marche region. Known for its elegance and millennia-old history, Ascoli Piceno enchants with its medieval and Renaissance architecture, imposing palaces, and charming squares. Strolling through the historic center, you'll be immersed in an atmosphere full of traditions, culture, and art.

Ascoli Piceno is famous for its Piazza del Popolo, one of Italy's most beautiful squares, surrounded by elegant buildings and historic cafés. But it's not just the squares that make this city unique; its medieval towers, churches, and monuments tell stories that date back to Roman and medieval times.

Among Ascoli's wonders, one can't help but mention its local cuisine, featuring dishes such as the famous "olive all'ascolana," which are part of the city's gastronomic tradition. An area of Italy rich in charm, history, and culture that will leave an unforgettable memory.

Day 7: From Ascoli Piceno to Rome, 200 km - 125 miles (Hotel included, afternoon motorcycle pickup)

Today, we head towards the magnificent capital of Italy, Rome, where history, art, and gastronomy blend into a single sensory experience. After riding along the scenic Italian roads, we will arrive in Rome, a city that has captivated travelers from all over the world for centuries. Here, we will have the opportunity to explore the Eternal City, with its wonders like the Colosseum, the Trevi Fountain, and the Pantheon, before indulging in a unique culinary experience. The evening will culminate in a dinner at a typical restaurant, where the flavors of Roman cuisine will be enhanced by a selection of local wines, beautifully closing this unforgettable journey through Italy's gastronomic excellence.

Day 8: Arrivederci! (Hotel NOT included)

Our adventure comes to an end. With hearts full of emotions, unforgettable memories, and the taste of authentic Italy, we prepare to leave the capital, with the promise to return and live new experiences on the roads of our country.
